Moon's Phases.

Last Quart. 1th at 7 49 morn; clear.
 New Moon 9th at 12 58 morn; cold.
 First Quart. 15th at 7 46 eve; cloudy.
 Full Moon 23d at 2 14 morn; N. W.
 Last Quart. 31st at 5 25 morn; snow.

Conjectures of the Weather.

The 1st, 2nd cold; 3rd, 4th fair; 5th snow; 6th, 7th, 8th cold; 9th, 10th clear; 11th, 12th snow; 13th, 14th cold; 15th, 16th cloudy; 17th, 18th variable; 19th, 20th snow; 21st, 22nd, 23rd N. W. cold; 24th, 25th mild; 26th, 27th, 28th variable; 29th 30th, 31st snow.

O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; to see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

Here is a scene in which some enjoy the jingle of the sleigh bells and the delightful ride. Boys are on their way to school whose hearts ache also to join the merry sleighing company. Remember boys this life is more than sport—it is real. As you go to school forget not this beautiful truth: “The tardy pupil becomes the tardy man, and he who has the reputation of being indifferent to his engagements, cannot be trusted.”

SABBATH BELLS.

BY EDGAR CHIPMAN.

The Sabbath bells are ringing clear;
Their echoing tones o'er land and sea
Fall solemnly upon my ear,
And bring this message unto me:
“Come! come! come to the house of prayer;
Come! where Jehovah's children meet;
Come! to His altar bring thy care,
With love thy coming He shall greet.
“Come! come! Come to the house of God,
And for thy troubles seek relief
From Him whose feet like thine have trod
The paths of suffering and grief.
Come! Come! From worldly care and strife,
Come! to the temple of the Lord,
Where broken is the Bread of Life,
Dispensed the manna of His Word.

“Come! come! O haste! thy Lord awaits,
With tenderness divine and love,
To welcome thee to Zion's gates,
And point the way to heaven above.
Come! come! Come up and bring
A soul for worship clean and pure,
And let thy heart his praises sing
In faith that ever shall endure.

“Come! come! O! heed our voice
And haste to join the happy throng,
Who in His love and peace rejoice
To worship Him with prayer and song.
Come! where His Spirit doth descend
Each doubting, sinking heart to cheer;
Come! meet thy Savior, Lord and Friend,
And let Him to thy soul draw near.

“Come! come! To thee, O thoughtless heart,
With loving earnestness we call;
Come! choose at once the ‘better part,’
For this existence is not all:
Of life the deathless soul shall know;
It lives eternally in bliss,
Or in an endless life of woe
Laments the sad mistakes of this.

First Reformed Minister in Ohio.

The first minister of the Reformed Church in Ohio was Rev. Jacob Christian, who, having been ordained in 1798, and residing in Rowan County, North Carolina, visited Ohio in 1802, and in 1803 moved hither with his family, locating in the “Clear Creek Settlement” in Warren County, and at once engaged in the practical work of the ministry.

Idleness is the mother of many wanton children. They that do nothing are in the ready way to do worse than nothing. It was not for nothing that we are called out of nothing.

Christ says, “I am the truth.” A truthful life is one conformed to the realities of both worlds. The love of truth is the love of reality; and since Christ is the grandest of realities, he who does not love Christ does not love truth.

Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

Frank is giving sister Anna a ride. How happy the children who love each others' company, and who play without quarrelling. Children, love one another.

First Reformed Church in Ohio.

The first Reformed congregation in Ohio was organized, if not formally by a kind of common consent, in December, 1803, in Warren County, under the name of Salem, by Rev. Jacob Christman, and since 1860 is known as the Springboro Reformed congregation. The pastors who have successively served this congregation are as follows:

Rev. Jacob Christman from 1803 to 1810, about 6 years.
 Rev. John Jacob Larose from 1810 to 1815, about 5 years.
 Rev. Thomas Winters from 1816 to 1836, about 20 years.
 Rev. Elijah Kuhns . . . . . from 1837 to 1841, about 4 years.
 Rev. George Long . . . . . from 1842 to 1852, about 10 years.
 Rev. William K. Zieber from 1852 to 1854, about 2½ years.
 Rev. Isaac H. Reiter . . . . . from 1854 to 1870, about 15½ years.
 Rev. Hiram Shumaker from 1870 to 1876, about 6½ years.
 Rev. Rich. B. Reichard from 1876 to 1882, about 5½ years.

Ministers as at First Ordained.

The first Ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States came from Europe, having been educated and set apart to the ministry there. This arrangement continued for some years.

The first young man of American birth, who was educated, licensed and ordained by the Coetus or Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, though directed by the authority of the Synod of Holland, was Rev. Casper Wack, who was born August 15, 1752, and licensed in 1770 and ordained in 1772. He proved himself worthy of the honor by his fidelity, devotion and success in the ministry. He died in 1839 at the age of eighty-seven years.

The first ministers of the Reformed Church, ordained by the Synod in the United States without the authority of the Synod of Holland, were Revs. J. Philip Stock and Jonathan Rahauer, whose ordination took place in June, 1791, and their ministry was confined to the East. Stock is said to have died in the West, but when and where is not known. His name appears in the minutes of Synod for the last time in 1804, perhaps the year in which he died. Rahauer, after a successful ministry, died at Hagerstown, Md., September 27, 1817, aged fifty-two years, nine months and thirteen days.

The first young men ordained by the Ohio Synod of the Reformed Church were Revs. Jacob Descombes, David Winters, and John Pence. This solemn transaction took place in New Philadelphia, Ohio, June 15, 1824, on calls from congregations in the Miami Valley Ohio, where they accomplished a good work in the cause of Christ. The first named died in 1845, while the other two are still living faithful to their trust at an advanced age.

For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face; now know I in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

Jesus says, "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."

O risen Christ! Thou art the door,
The everlasting way,
The blessed Easter-gate of life
That opens to the day.
All praise, our risen Lord, to thee,
For love that conquers death;
For faith that maketh quick to hear
One word that Jesus saith.

The Resurrection.

No event is fraught with greater comfort to the Christian than the fact that Christ is risen from the dead. By his resurrection the Savior declares his power over death and the grave, and comes to each sad heart with the cheering words "All hail!" This drives from the heart all gloom and dispels all the darkness. He came forth from the chambers of death as victor. He illuminates the grave with his divine glory, and sheds his light into the valley of death, so that but the shadow of death lingers there. He lifts the burden from the heart and says in cheerful language, "Peace be unto you."

Around the resurrection of Christ centers the completion of the Savior's work on earth, as Paul says, "If Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain."

Jesus lives! for us he died,
Then alone to Jesus living,
Pure in heart may we abide,
Glory to our Savior giving.

Easter.

The day specially commemorative of the resurrection of our Lord, is the first day of the week—the Lord's day. Still the larger portion of the Visible Church gives also special prominence to what is commonly considered the anniversary—Easter. There is this much to be said in favor of the special observance of Easter. It brings into prominence, once a year at least, that which ought to be brought into greater or less prominence each Lord's day—the resurrection of our Lord; and the glorious hope and promise springing from it—the resurrection of the body.

In an age when the resurrection of the body is so widely overlooked—when so few seem to realize their personal interest therein; when the old idea of heaven as the abode of disembodied spirits, has so largely supplanted, even in the minds of so many professing Christians, the Bible idea of heaven as the abode of men and women clothed in true and real, though risen, bodies—it can but be well, at least once a year to have the Bible doctrine of the true and proper immortality of man brought prominently before us. Jesus Christ is not only the Savior of the soul: He is also the Savior of the body—of the whole man. He hath abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel. As surely as He rose, so surely will He bring those who trust in Him from the grave. Just such a body as He had, will they have. Just such a lot as was awarded to Him, will He share with them.

The true life of the believer is this resurrection life; because then, and not till then, will we be perfect in both soul and body. In the mean time let us walk with newness of life as becometh those that have risen with Him, and with Him have their citizenship in heaven.

The reward of the faithful is certain.

APRIL.

Month of sunbeams and of shadows
Sunny smiles and rainbow tears,
Month of flower, bespangled meadows—
Now thy velvet step appears.

Bubbling waters onward rushing
Murmur gladness on their way,
Birds of spring are wildly gushing
Lays of love on every spray.

Now the sky is bright and glorious
Then a shade its brightness shrouds,
And the "star-king" rules victorious,
Then the sunlight gilds the clouds.

Then the "beaded drops," before us
Glitter like the dew of even;
Then the bow of promise o'er us
Smile in love from distant heaven.

Month of sunbeams and of shadows,
Sunny smiles and rainbow tears,
Month of flower, bespangled meadows—
Now thy magic step appears.

Duties are ours, events are the Lord's;
it is our part to let the Almighty exercise his own office and steer his own helm.

First Reformed Missionaries.

In 1746 Rev. Michael Schlatte, as the first regular appointed missionary of the Reformed Church, arrived from Europe in America, commencing his labors in Pennsylvania and extending them to Maryland and Virginia. He then found forty-six Reformed congregations under organization, more or less perfect, and some of them numbering a large membership. He did a great and noble work.

The first missionary from the East to the West, sent by the authority of the Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, was Rev. Jacob William Dechant, of Lehigh County, Pennsylvania. He, in connection with Rev. William Hendel, was appointed by Synod in 1812, but for some reason did not make his missionary tour until in 1814, when he visited congregations in the Miami Valley, in Ohio; and in 1816, having removed hither with his family, became the settled pastor of some of these congregations, and continued his labors here until in 1819, when he, with his family, returned to Pennsylvania.

The first missionary appointed by the Ohio Synod was Rev. John Pence, who, in 1826, the year in which he was appointed, made an exploring and visiting tour through a part of the State of Indiana, preaching the gospel to the destitute, administering the ordinance of baptism and the Lord's Supper, and giving encouragement and consolation to the people.

He that questions much, learns much.

Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

But godliness with contentment is great gain.

MAY IS HERE.

The changeable April days,
When shadow with sunshine plays,
In frowns nor smiles appear;
They vanished in tears away,
And in their stead is May,
Beautiful May is here.

The wind came out of the South,
And kissed thy rosy mouth,
Fair Queen of all the year;
And this is its perfumed song,
Floating in gladness along,
The May, sweet May is here!

A chime of hether bells,
Brings out from the woods and dells,
A fairy anthem clear;
And countless echoes I know,
Are tuning the voices that flow,
To answer, May is here.

The magical beams that fall,
From sunlight's enchanted hall,
In glory everywhere,
Say to the joy-crowned earth,
Send all thy treasures forth,
For lo! the May is here.

By the bee's melodious hum,
By the floods of balms that come,
From grasses creeping near;
By the locks of sweet surprise,
In the violet's blue eyes,
We know that May is here.

On every village green,
Happy groups to-day are seen,
Their flow'ry poles to rear,
And every youthful voice,
Is shouting, rejoice! rejoice!
For merry May is here.

The Ascension.

The Savior did not live in doubt in regard to what would come to pass after his resurrection. Before his crucifixion already he spoke in positive language of his ascension. When he addresses the disciples in the fourteenth chapter of St. John's gospel he says, "Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

He spoke of his future glory, and gave such emphasis to his words that not a doubt could linger there. He did not leave the disciples in doubt, but after showing himself alive, and speaking to them concerning their future work, he ascended, and a "cloud received him out of their sight." Hence, as he said, "I will go and prepare a place for you," we have the comforting assurance that he will come to receive to himself every one of his believing children. Then shall we have the promise of sitting down with him to a royal feast. Our venerable symbol of faith teaches us the advantage of Christ's ascension into heaven which we will do well to remember.

It asks us, "Of what advantage to us is Christ's ascension into heaven? First, that he is our advocate in the presence of his Father in heaven. Secondly, that we have our Father in heaven, as a sure pledge that he, as the head, will also take up to himself us his members. Thirdly, that he sends us his Spirit, as an earnest, by whose power we seek the things which are above, where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God, and not things on earth."

If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

THE SUMMER TIME.

'Tis coming, 'tis coming,
The beautiful summer,
The world will be soon all in tune:
Each bird, bee and blossom,
Each leaf and all grasses,
Will grow in the sunshine of June.

'Tis coming, 'tis coming,
The hearts of the children,
All feel the soft touch of its breath,
And wake with the spell
That rouses the roses
From out of their slumber of death.

Pioneer Ministers in the West.

The first or pioneer ministers of the Reformed Church, who settled in Ohio previous to it having any ecclesiastical organization in the then West, were the following: Rev. Jacob Christman settled in Warren County in 1803; Rev. John Jacob Laroze in Montgomery County in 1804; Rev. John Peter Mahnenschmidt in Columbiana County in 1813; Rev. Thomas Winters (as Reformed minister) at Germantown, Montgomery County, in 1815; Rev. George Weisz at Lancaster, Fairfield County, in 1817; Rev. Benjamin Faust at Canton, Stark County, in 1818, and Rev. Henry Sonnedecker at Wooster, Wayne County, in 1820. All these fathers and founders of the Reformed Church in the West have gone to the eternal reward, but their memory will ever live.

Synods and Their Organizations.

The Reformed Church, in all periods of its history, from the time of the Reformation down to the present, and in all European countries where it existed, as well as in America, has been governed by Synods with their subordinate Classes. The Synods of the Reformed Church in the United States, as to name and organization, are as follows:

Synod in the United States, at Philadelphia, Pa., September 29, 1747. Synod of Ohio, at New Philadelphia, O., June 14, 1824. Synod of the Northwest, at Fort Wayne, Ind., May 29, 1867. Synod of Pittsburg, at Pittsburg, Pa., February 12, 1870. Synod of Potomac, at — —, April 18, 1873. German Synod of the East, at Philadelphia, Pa., January 12, 1875. The Central Synod at Galion, O., November 4, 1881. The General Synod, at Pittsburg, Pa., November 19, 1863.

There have been other Synods which, however, have no longer any existence, namely:

1. The Free Synod of Pennsylvania, existing for a period of fourteen years, from 1822 to 1836, when it re-united with the Synod of the Reformed Church

Send forth more lab'lers day by day;

2. The three District Synods into which the Ohio Synod had been divided from 1839 to 1842. These Synods were formally organized as follows: First District in 1840, at _____; Second District in 1840, at Bethlehem, Ohio, and Third District in 1840, June 8, at Dayton, Ohio. All of them became dissolved in 1842, being superseded by the system of Classes.

3. The German Independent Synod of Ohio, which was organized at New Lisbon, Ohio, October 3, 1846, but which, after a separate existence of six years, became again a part of the Ohio Synod in 1852.

Live that you may not fear to die.

Every honest man is a man of truth; his word is his bond. A wilful liar is a deceitful man, and a public fraud, unworthy of confidence or trust.

Once a poor heathen convert came to the missionary to procure a Bible. "I have not a new one that I can give you," said the missionary. "I have a second-hand one; but it is old." "Oh, that is nothing. If the book is old, the word is new."

Dear young friends, avoid the first wrong step. Yield not to a single temptation, or you will be less able to resist subsequent ones. If you have already started in the way of disobedience and vice, retrace your steps at once. It will be easier to do so now than at any future time.

FRIENDS OF LONG AGO.

When I sit in the twilight gloaming
And the busy streets grow still,
I dream of the wide, green meadows
And the old house on the hill,
I can see the roses blooming
About the doorway low;
Again my heart gives greeting
To the friends of long ago—
Dear long ago!

I can see my mother, sitting
With life's snowflakes in her hair,
And she smiles above her knitting,
And her face is saintly fair.
And I see my father reading
From the Bible on his knee,
And again I hear him praying
As he used to pray for me—
So long ago!

I see the dear old faces
Of the boys and girls at home,
As I saw them in the dear old days,
Before we learned to roam.
And I sing the old songs over
With the friends I used to know,
And my heart forgets its sorrows
In its dreams of long ago!
Dear long ago!

How widely our feet have wandered
From our old home's tender ties,
Some are beyond the ocean,
And some are beyond the skies,
My heart grows sad with thinking,
Of the friends I used to know;
Perhaps I shall meet in heaven
All the loved ones of long ago.
Dear long ago!

Good deeds shine like stars in heaven.

First Sermon in Ohio.

It is said that the first sermon preached, within the limits of what now constitutes the State of Ohio, to white men, was preached in the block house on the Muskingum River, in the year 1786, by Rev. William Breck. His text was Exodus xix: 5, 6, "Now, therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people; for all the earth is mine; and ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation."

Revs. Frederick Post and John Heckewelder, who were Moravian missionaries, previously, settled on the Beaver River, and then moved to the Tuscarawas River, where they founded the towns of Christian Indians, who were afterwards cruelly and brutally destroyed. But Post and Heckewelder were not permanent settlers, as their settlements were broken up by the Indians.

The tongue which takes pleasure in criticizing the faults of others, is like one who delights in the labors of a pest-house.

Earnestness alone makes life eternity. If you have a duty to perform do it willingly and pleasantly. Let the world see that your heart is in the work.

Last Quarter 23d at 7 49 morn; cloudy.

Conjectures of the Weather.

The 1st, 2nd, 3rd fair; 4th, 5th variable; 6th, 7th cloudy; 8th thunder showers; 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th clear; 13th, 14th, 15th variable; 16th, 17th warm; 18th, 19th sultry; 20th, 21st storm; 22nd, 23rd cloudy; 24th, 25th, 26th fair; 27th, 28th stormy; 29th, 30th fair.

I am the door; by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out and find pasture.

The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy; I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

September.

This is the month when the farmer casts his seed into the ground. How kind God is in giving the increase. We have the assurance that seed-time and harvest shall not fail. We ought to be sowing seeds continually that will bring us a harvest of love and gladness.

FADED LEAVES.

The hills are bright with maples yet,
But down the level land
The beech leaves rustle in the wind,
As dry and brown as sand.

The clouds in bars of rusty red
Along the hill-tops glow,
And in the still sharp air the first
Is like a dream of snow.

The berries of the brier rose
Have lost their rounded pride;
The bitter-sweet, chrysanthemums
Are drooping heavy-eyed.

The cricket grows more friendly now;
The dormouse sly and wise,
Hiding away in the disgrace
Of Nature from men's eyes.

The pigeons, in black wavering lines,
Are winging toward the sun!
And all the wide and withered fields
Proclaim the summer done.

Doing for the Church.

The question is sometimes asked, "what can I do for the church?" This may be readily answered thus:

1. I can give my heart to God by faith in Jesus Christ and thus secure a special blessing for myself and for the church of which I am a member.
2. I can pray for the peace and prosperity of the church.
3. I can work for the unity, spirituality and growth of the church.
4. I can, by a godly life, illustrate the saving power of the gospel, and thereby win others to Christ.
5. I can induce others, by word and example, to attend the service of the church.
6. I can contribute a part of my earnings to the church.

Who will join me in doing work for the church in this way? To do this it will not require great learning, or wealth, or power. It is simply doing, working for the church, with a sincere and believing heart, and with a firm trust in the Lord that blessed results will be attained.

There are some members in the community who are like a crumb of bread in the throat; if they go in the right direction, they afford but little nourishment to the body; but if they happen to go the wrong way, as is frequently the case, they give a great deal of trouble.

A man advertises for competent persons to undertake the sale of a new medicine, and adds that "it will be profitable to the undertaker." No doubt of it; most of them are.

Conjectures of the Weather.

The 1st, 2nd cloudy; 3rd, 4th, 5th fair; 6th, 7th rain; 8th, 9th, 10th cold, stormy; 11th, 12th clear; 13th, 14th variable; 15th, 16th cloudy; 17th, 18th rain; 19th, 20th variable; 21st, 22nd, 23rd fair; 24th, 25th cloudy; 26th, 27th rain; 28th, 29th, 30th clear; 31st pleasant.

As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you; continue ye in my love.

If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

AUTUMN.

Shorter and shorter now the twilight clips
The days as through the sunset gates they crowd,
And summer from her golden collar slips
And strays through stubble fields and moans aloud.
Save when by fits the warmer air deceives,
And stealing hopeful to some sheltered
bower,
She lies on pillows of the yellow leaves
And tries the old tunes over for an hour.
The wind, whose tender whisper in the May Set all the young blooms listening through the grove,
Sits rustling in the faded boughs to-day,
And makes his cold and unsuccessful love.
The rose has taken off her tire of red;
The mullein-stock its yellow stars has lost,
And the proud meadow-pink hangs down her head
Against earth's chilly bosom, withered with frost.
The robin that was busy all the June
Before the sun had kissed the topmost bough,
Catching our hearts up in his golden tune,
Has given place to the barn-cricket now.
The very cock crows lonesomely at morn;
Each flag and fern the shrinktng stream divides:
Uneasy cattle low, and lambs forlorn
Creep to their strawy sheds with nettled sides.

Shut up the door; who loves me must not look
Upon the withered world, but haste to bring
His lighted candle and his story book
And love with me the poetry of spring.

Charity taken in its largest extent is nothing else but the sincere love of God and our neighbor.

Foreign Missions.

The contributions made to Foreign Missions by the Reformed Church in the United States since October, 1863, as appears from the Treasurer's book, are as follows:

From Oct. 27, 1863 to Oct. 18, 1864...	$2,539 69
" Oct. 18, 1864 to Oct. 13, 1865...	3,449 07
" Oct. 13, 1865 to Nov. 24, 1866...	789 28
" Nov. 24, 1866 to Oct. 10, 1867...	476 83
" Oct. 10, 1867 to Oct. 16, 1868...	348 55
" Oct. 16, 1868 to Oct. 2, 1869...	105 41
" Oct. 2, 1869 to Nov. 19, 1870...	77 22
" Nov. 19, 1870 to Nov. 6, 1871...	132 57
" Nov. 6, 1871 to Nov. 16, 1872...	282 07
" Nov. 16, 1872 to Nov. 1, 1872...	330 96
" Nov. 1, 1873 to Nov. 1, 1874...	302 64
" Nov. 1, 1874 to Nov. 1, 1875...	55 27
" Nov. 1, 1875 to Nov. 1, 1876...	167 89
" Nov. 1, 1876 to Nov. 1, 1877...	170 67
" Nov. 1, 1877 to July 10, 1878...	52 49
" July 10, 1878 to July 1, 1879...	918 10
" July 1, 1879 to July 1, 1880...	2,384 05
" July 1, 1880 to July 1, 1881....	6,315 33
" July 1, 1881 to July 1, 1882....	3,561 32
In addition to the foregoing sums, of actual contributions, there were received legacies, namely, in 1869, $133.30; in 1871, $1,000, and in 1880, $1,650.74, making a total of	2,794 04
	$25,147 45

This would be, for the nineteen years named, at the rate of $1,323.55 per year. The statement of the above facts is possessed of interest, but it also shows that our annual contributions must be much increased, if our foreign missionary work is to be extended and prospered, and to assume the proportion and power to accomplish under God what should be reasonably expected.

Harvest never comes to such as sow not.

BLACKSMITH—“Where have you been Anna?”

ANNA—“Why this is Thanksgiving Day and on my way home from service Mrs. Perkins gave me a basket of good things for mamma’s dinner. Mamma is sick and we could not get a nice dinner because we are poor. Oh, how happy mamma will be for this gift.”

Good Mrs. Perkins always remembers the poor on Thanksgiving Day, for she says “it is more blessed to give than to receive.”

Thanksgiving Day.

The idea of the Thanksgiving Day is suggested by the Hebrew feast of tabernacles, or “feast of ingathering at the end of the year.” This custom has been probably observed ever since the colonization of America. The earlier appointments of thanksgiving days were for different reasons, particularly for the arrival of ships with provisions and new colonists; but the later were more generally for harvest, and were held in the late autumn or early winter. During the revolution Thanksgiving Day was a national institution, being annually recommended by Congress; but after the general thanksgiving for peace in 1784, there was no national appointment until 1789, when President Washington, by request of Congress, recommended a day of thanksgiving for the adoption of the Constitution. Thus from time to time special proclamations were made until 1862 and 1863, when President Lincoln made it an annual occurrence, and so it has continued ever since. Since then the President issues annual proclamations, as well as the Governors of the States and Mayors of cities, and custom has fixed the time for the last Thursday in November.

Source of Personal Beauty.

A beautiful person is the natural form of a beautiful soul. The mind builds its own house. The soul takes precedence of the body, and shapes the body to its own likeness. A vacant mind takes all the meaning out of the fairest face. A sensual disposition deforms the handsomest features. A cold, selfish heart shrivels and distorts the best looks. A mean, groveling spirit takes all the dignity out of the figure and all the character out of the countenance. A cherished hatred transforms the most beautiful lineaments into an image of ugliness. It is as impossible to preserve good looks with a brood of bad passions feeding on the blood, a set of low loves tramping through the heart, and a selfish, disdainful spirit enthroned in the will, as to preserve the beauty of an elegant mansion, with a litter of swine in the basement, a tribe of gypsies in the parlor, and vultures in the upper part.

What's well begun is half done.

These things I command you, that ye love one another.

BELLS ACROSS THE SNOW.

O Christmas, merry Christmas!
Is it really come again?
With its memories and greetings,
With its joys and with its pain,
There's a minor in the carol,
And a shadow in the light,
And a spray of cypress twining
With the holly wreath to-night;
And the hush is never broken
By laughter, light and low,
As we listen in the star-light
To the "bells across the snow."

O Christmas, merry Christmas!
'Tis not so very long
Since other voices blended
With the carol and the song.
If we could but hear them singing
As they are singing now;
If we could but see the radiance
Of the cross on each dear brow—
There would be no sigh to smother,
No hidden tear to flow,
As we listen in the star-light
To the "bells across the snow."

Rules of Conduct.

Never exaggerate.
Never point at another.
Never betray a confidence.
Never wantonly frighten others.
Never neglect to visit your friends.
Never leave home with unkind words.
Never laugh at the misfortunes of others.

Never give a promise that you do not fulfill.

Never send a present hoping for one in return.

Never speak much of your own performances.

Never pick the teeth or clean the nails in company.

Never make yourself the hero of your story.

Never fail to give a polite answer to a civil question.

Never question a servant or child about family matters.

Never present a gift saying it is of no use to yourself.

Never read letters which you may find addressed to others.

Never associate with bad company. Have good company or none.

Never call attention to the features or form of any one present.

Never look over the shoulder of another who is reading or writing.

Never refer to a gift you have made or favor you have rendered.

Never appear to notice a scar, deformity or defect of any one present.

Never arrest the attention of an acquaintance by a touch. Speak to him.

Never answer questions in general company that have been put to others.

Never, when traveling abroad, be over-boastful in praise of your own country.

Our doubts are traitors and make us lose the good we might win, by fearing to attempt.

Ambition is to the mind what the cap is to the falcon; it blinds us first, and then compels us to tower by reason of our blindness. But, alas! when we are at the summit of a vain ambition, we are at the depth of misery.

Systematic Benevolence.

The Apostle Paul gives us good directions in I. Cor. xvi: 2: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come." From this we see:

1. That giving is a religious act, an act of worship. It belongs to the work of the Lord's day—"Upon the first day of the week."

2. It is a universal duty, incumbent upon all, old and young, male and female—"Let every one of you lay by him in store."

3. He gives us a good measure, according to which we should regulate our giving—"As God hath prospered him."

4. Giving should be voluntary, free, and as far as possible independent of all appeals or agencies—"That there be no gatherings when I come."

Now let each one of us lay this to heart, and see how we can carry it out. We can adopt one of three systems:

1. The Box System. Have a suitable box kept in each family, for each member, into which gifts for the Lord and his cause are placed every Sunday, to be opened at stated times, and the contents given to the proper societies.

2. The Envelope System. Let every one, on Sunday, place his contribution in an envelope, stating for what cause it is contributed, and take it along to the church, to be deposited in the contribution-box.

3. The Committee System. Let every board of deacons get up a subscription list every New Year among all the members of the church, and gather these sums every month or quarter for the proper societies. . .

If this were done by all, there would be a constant stream of benevolence flowing into the treasury of the Lord.

Verily I have seen the best of this world, a moth-eaten, thread-bare coat; I purpose to lay it aside being now old and full of holes.

Time is so precious that there is never but one moment in the world at once, and that is always taken away before another is given.

A little boy watched the burning school-house until the novelty of the thing had ceased, then started down the street, saying: "I'm glad the old thing's gone. I didn't have my gogfry lesson no how."

The Missionary and the Indian.

The above cut shows us the good missionary instructing the Indian. Of late years there have been many missions established among these children of the forest, and it is undoubtedly the best way to make peaceful citizens of them. Our own church has established a mission among the Indians of the Northwest, and any one desiring to contribute to this worthy object may send money to Rev. Ludwig Zenk, Kiel, Manitowoc County, Wis.

Useful Recipes.

SPICED PLUMS.—Seven pounds of plums; four pounds of sugar; one tablespoonful each of pure spices; one quart of vinegar. Boil twenty-five minutes, or longer if necessary.

WHITE MOUNTAIN CAKE.—Half cup butter, 2 cups sugar, 2 eggs, 3 cups flour, 1 cup sweet milk, 2 tea-spoonsful cream tarter, 1 tea-spoonful soda.

ICE CREAM.—One quart of milk, the yolks of four eggs, one large spoonful of flour stirred to a smooth paste in a little of the milk, and one pound of sugar; scald until thick, taking care not to let it burn. When cold, add one quart of whipped cream and the beaten whites of four eggs; flavor to suit the taste, and it is ready to be frozen.

ONION PICKLES.—Take the smallest white onions, skin them and throw them into cold, salted water, and let them boil slowly until they are transparent. Then skim them out, throw away the water, and put the onions into a jar, and make a pickle of strong vinegar, in which a bag of spices has been boiled for ten minutes. Pour it over the onions boiling hot, cover tightly from the air, and in a few weeks they will be very toothsome.

SPICE CAKE.—Two cups sugar, 1 cup butter, 3 eggs, 1 cup cold water, 1 tea-spoonful soda, 3 cups chopped raisins, 3 cups flour. Spice to taste.

COOKIES.—One cup butter, 1 cup rich sweet cream, 3 cups pulverized sugar, 3 eggs, 3 tea-spoonsful baking powder, flour enough to roll. The softer it is made the better.

To POLISH A STOVE.—To wet the blacking take cold coffee enough to wet as much as you want; to a teacupful of blacking take a lump of sugar the size of a walnut. It is best to have the stove a little warm, as it polishes much better.

In youth, yea in manhood, we should cultivate mind and character to the utmost, for we know not for what end God may have destined us.

DECASED MINISTERS OF THE REFORMED CHURCH.

BY REV. ISAAC H. REITER, D. D.

Ministers of Christ! your labors done,
Praise is now your sweet employ;
And while eternal ages run,
Rest ye in your Savior's joy!

With the view of cherishing their memories and perpetuating their virtues among the living, after much research and labor, we here put on record a list of the names of the deceased ministers of the Reformed Church in the United States, together with the place and time of their death, and also their age. The list is made as complete and correct as could be done from the data at hand. Some of these ministers had been connected with the Reformed Church in the United States only during a part of their ministry, having at some time been dismissed to other churches, or otherwise disappeared, yet in view of such connection their names are included in this list:

*Loretz came to America late in 1784 or early in 1785, and labored one year (1785-86) in the congregation of Trulbehocken, Swatara and Heidelberg, Pennsylvania. In the spring of 1786 he returned to his native country—Switzerland. This was the father of the Rev. Andrew Loretz, who first appears in history in 1789 and labored in North and South Carolina, and died in 1812, and then entered the medical profession.

*Rankel served in the ministry from 1808 to 1812, and then entered the medical profession.

Words of Thoughtful Men.

They always talk who never think.—Pope.

Be ignorance thy choice where knowledge leads to woe.—Beattie.

Censure is the tax a man pays to the public for being eminent.—Swift.

True friendship between man and man is infinite and immortal.—Plato.

Trust that man in nothing who has not a conscience in everything.—Sterne.

Occasions do not make a man frail, but they show what he is.—Thomas A'Kempis.

We love in others what we lack ourselves, and would he everything but what we are.—Stoddard.

To tell men that they cannot help themselves is to fling them into recklessness and despair.—Froude.

Education is the only interest worthy the deep, controlling anxiety of the thoughtful man.—Wendell Phillips.

He that wrestles with us strengthens our nerves and sharpens our skill. Our antagonist is our helper.—Burke.

Travel makes all men countrymen, makes people noblemen and kings, every man tasting of liberty and dominion.—Alcott.

Confidence is that feeling by which the mind embarks in great and honorable courses with a sure hope and trust in itself.—Cicero.

In life it is difficult to say who do you the most mischief, enemies with the worst intentions, or friends with the best.

—Bulwer Lytton.

We ought not to look back unless it is to derive usefulness from past errors and for the purpose of profiting by dear-bought experience.—George Washington.

Humility is to make a right estimate of one's self. It is no humility for a man to think less of himself than he ought, though it might rather puzzle him to do that.—Spurgeon.

Whatever the number of a man's friends, there will be times in his life when he has one too few; but if he has only one enemy, he is lucky indeed if he has not one too many.—Bulwer Lytton.

Boy Inventors.

A boy's elders are guilty of a foolish act when they snub him because he says he does something which they don't understand. A boy's personality is entitled to as much respect as a man's, so long as he behaves himself. In the following anecdotes wise and foolish elders are exhibited; one class respecting and the other despising a boy.

Some of the most important inventions have been the work of boys. The invention of the valve motion to the steam-engine was made by a mere boy.

Newcome's engine was in a very incomplete condition, from the fact that there was no way to open or close the valves, except by means of levers operated by the hand.

He set up a large engine at one of the mines, and a boy, Humphrey Potter, was hired to work these valve-levers; although this was not hard work, yet it required his constant attention.

As he was working the levers, he saw that parts of the engine moved in the right direction, and at the same time he had to open or close the valves.

He procured a strong cord, and made one end fast to the proper part of the engine, and the other end to the valve lever; and the boy then had the satisfaction of seeing the engine move with perfect regularity of motion.

A short time after, the foreman came around and saw the boy playing marbles at the door. Looking at the engine he saw the ingenuity of the boy, and also the advantage of so great an invention. The idea suggested by the boy's inventive genius was put in a practical form and made the steam-engine an automatic working machine.

The power-loom is the invention of a farmer's boy who had never seen or heard of such a thing.

He whittled out one with his jack-knife, and after he had got it all done he, with great enthusiasm, showed it to his father, who at once kicked it to pieces, saying he would have no boy about him that would spend his time on such foolish things.

The boy was sent to a blacksmith to learn a trade, and his master took a lively interest in him. He made a loom of what was left of the one his father had broken up, and showed it to his master.

The blacksmith saw he had no common boy as an apprentice, and that the invention was a valuable one. He had a loom constructed under the supervision of the boy. It worked to their perfect satisfaction, and the blacksmith furnished the means to manufacture the looms, and the boy received half the profits.

In about a year the blacksmith wrote to the boy's father that he would bring with him a wealthy gentleman who was the inventor of the celebrated power-loom.

You may be able to judge of the astonishment at the old home when his son was presented to him as the inventor, who told him that the loom was the same as the model that he had kicked to pieces but a year ago.

Family Libraries.

Every family should be supplied with books, and each household should, as far as their ability will allow, procure a family library. There is no estimating the value of a few well-selected books. Children should be induced to begin early to improve their minds, and nothing draws them more to study than good, sound, periodical literature, and well-selected books—books adapted to their age and progress and their education. Money cannot be better expended. Instead of toys and perishable gifts, purchase books for your children. Every few months add something new to the library, and be sure to preserve the old works. Let there be in the house a book-case, shelves, some place where the books and papers are deposited; have them carefully preserved, and soon a little handful will swell into armsful, and the minds of the children will expand with the increase of the library, until a good store will be found in the house, and much knowledge will be gained by the growing children.

Good books, a taste for reading, will keep the children at home and make them happy in the family circle, when otherwise they will be straying off hunting society, looking for something to engage the mind and satisfy the cravings of a hungry intellect. Games and worldly amusements are substituted for books and intellectual culture, where there is no library at home, no food found for the inquiring mind. Let parents think of these things. Much, very much, depends on the early training of the child in regard to study, as well as other things.

PATIENCE.

Every lily in the meadow
Waits in patience for the rain;
Every daisy in the shadow
Waits till sunshine comes again;
Every birdie in its home-nest
Waits for food, nor waits in vain.

Dearest Savior, it is written,
“Be ye patient,” in thy Word;
Make me patient as the lily,
Or the daisy, or the bird.
Give me, Lord, thy tranquil spirit,
Never by a passion stirred.

O help us, God, while it is day,
By kindly words and deeds,
To store good memories away,
For the last evening’s needs;
And so to hear, at set of sun,
The comfort of the Lord’s “Well done;”
Nor feel remorse, and grief, and shame,
But gladly face the falling night,
And hope for heaven’s eternal light,
Through the Redeemer’s name.

An editor who was told that his article was as clear as mud, said, “Well, that covers the ground, anyhow.”

Whenever you see a post surrounded with props, you may rest assured that it is rotten at the base, or otherwise it would not need such support. So it is with men. When a man’s character can only be sustained by the testimonials of others, it is pretty evident that there is some unsoundness in him, or else he would not need such aids. It is only cripples who use crutches. Well men don’t need them.

Piles and Rectal Diseases.

Dr. McDowell's unparalleled success in treating the above diseases in Dayton for many years, and the high commendations he is continually receiving from every section of the country is sufficient evidence to the afflicted in that line. The following are extracts of endorsements from home. Thousands of similar ones can be produced:

"Amidst a world of humbug advertisements we feel that it is just to give a work of true merit a place in our paper. The physician in the case is Dr. W. G. McDowell, a member of our church here in the city."

CHRISTIAN WORLD.

"Dr. McDowell, of Dayton, deserves success, and we are very glad to be able to say that he is meeting with his deserts by means of an immense and rapidly increasing practice."

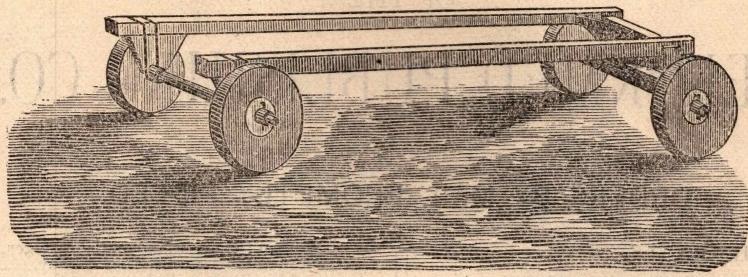

DAYTON HERALD.

"Having been a sufferer from piles for more than eighteen years, I am happy to state that I have been completely cured and restored to health by Dr. McDowell, of Dayton, O."

REV. D. H. REITER, Fulton, Mich.

If the afflicted should desire further evidence call on or write W. G. McDowell, M. D., No. 17 West Fifth Street, Dayton, Ohio.
